

Camp Colorado Renters Required Coronavirus Supplemental Release – Summer 2022

Coronaviruses like COVID19, SARS, and the common cold, are a large family of viruses that can cause mild to severe upper or lower respiratory infections. Coronaviruses are contagious and believed to be spread by person-to-person contact, and in airborne form. In an effort to limit the spread, the undersigned will comply with all national, state and local recommendations and procedures, according to the Centers for Disease Control, the State of Colorado, and Douglas County Health Department. Western Plains Outdoor Ministries cannot guarantee that a camp participant will not be exposed to, become infected with, or suffer injury from a coronavirus or other communicable/infectious disease or sickness while on the premises, while traveling to or from any camp activity, or while engaged in any camp related activities.

By signing this agreement, I acknowledge the contagious nature of coronaviruses and other communicable/infectious diseases and sicknesses. I voluntarily assume the risk that I (or staff or campers) may be exposed to, become infected by, or suffer injury from a coronavirus or other communicable/infectious disease or sickness while on the premises, while traveling to or from any camp activity, or while engaged in any camp related activities. I further acknowledge that such exposure or infection may result in bodily injury, personal injury, emotional injury, illness, permanent disability and/or death, as well as medical expenses and other costs for myself (or staff or camper).

I understand that the risk of becoming exposed to, infected by, or injured from a coronavirus or other communicable/infectious diseases or sicknesses at Camp Colorado may, despite best efforts to prevent it, result from errors, omissions, or negligence of myself and others, including but not limited to Western Plains Outdoor Ministries and its camps' leaders, employees, volunteers, and other camp participants. I voluntarily agree to assume all the foregoing risks and accept sole responsibility for any illness, injury or death to myself (or staff or campers).

I hereby release and promise to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Western Plains Outdoor Ministries and its camps, its camp employees, leaders, owners, agents, and representatives, of and from all claims of any kind. A "claim" includes all liabilities, claims, actions, damages, costs or expenses arising out of or relating to the exposure to, contraction of, or injury from, a coronavirus or other communicable/infectious disease or sickness.
